

Special-Lecture

MY PARASITOLOGICAL STUDIES: RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN HOST FISH AND PLANKTONIC INVERTEBRATES AND SYMBIONTS Susumu Ohtsuka

- Date: 2011 Jan. 26 (Wed) 10:30~12:00
- Place: Presentation room, Center for Integrated Research 2F
- Contact: Ueda laboratory ☎088-856-2553
hueda@kochi-u.ac.jp

A wide variety of symbioses exist in the marine ecosystems. I will talk about the ecological relationships between host fish and parasitic copepods, in particular, between puffer fish and sea lice. In addition symbioses between host zooplankters and parasites will be discussed briefly.

Organizer: Graduate School of Kuroshio Science
DC seminar (Doctor course): Natural science
Kuroshio Seminar (Master course): Natural science